GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the New Louisville Jockey Club was held at 4 o'clock last Thursday afternoon in the office of the club, in the Courier-Journal building. A full attendance of stockholders was present.

The following directors were elected by the stockholders to serve during the ensuing year:

Charles F. Grainger, M. J. Winn, Louis Seelbach, Charles F. Price, Saunders P. Jones, Walter E. Glover and J. C. Boardman.

The board of directors subsequently held a meeting and elected the following officers for 1903:

President, Charles F. Grainger.

Vice President, M. J. Winn.

Secretary and Manager, Charles F. Price.

Treasurer, J. C. Boardman.

It will be seen that there were no changes among the officers of the club, and the new director is Saunders P. Jones, who is now a heavy stockholder in the organization.

This meeting was the first annual gathering of the stockholders since the change was made some time ago. At that time a board of directors and a set of officers were elected to fill the various vacancies caused by the change in ownership, and the stockholders yesterday practically ratified the original action.

The reports of Secretary Price and Treasurer Boardman were of little interest to the public, being merely routine. However, they showed the New Louisville Jockey Club to be in good financial condition for the many improvements which are being made at Churchill Downs.

Julius Fleischmann, mayor of Cincinnati, owner of several high-class thoroughbreds, announced recently that he would devote a great deal of his personal attention to racing next year.

"I'm through with politics," says Mr. Fleischmann, "my term of office as mayor expires next spring and I'm quite content to step down and out."

"I don't imagine I'll do anything sensational on the turf next year, but I'll have Hurstbourne, Irascible, St. Daniel, Wax Candle and Homily to head my stable. These three-year-olds to be all that I have left of the string I raised during the present season, but I will have thirty two-year-olds from which I expect a few real good ones to materialize."

"It has been my custom during the last few years to dispose of nearly all of my horses at the end of the season—sometimes at Saratoga—but I occasionally keep a horse or two that I have a particular fondness for. My intention, however, is to race two-year-olds almost exclusively, and dispose of them to the best advantage at the close of each season, retaining only a few."

"No, I have not decided to race two strings next year. The chances are that I will, however. I'm going to try for some of the spring stakes at Latonia, and may decide to allow Mr. Welch, who will continue to train for me, to appoint a sort of understudy, who will have charge of the string he can't take care of himself. The outlook for racing in the west seems very bright, and I should not be at all astonished if there should be an extraordinary boom in racing next year."

According to reports from the coast the case of jockey Bullman is a favorite topic between races at Ingleside. Bullman and Tommy Burns were recently pardoned for insubordination by the New York stewards and have been accepting mounts there. Burns has managed to keep on an even keel, but Bullman has become involved in all kinds of trouble with starter Holtman. He has been fined repeatedly for unruly behavior at the gate and has been set down for three days. He had no sooner served his sentence than he incurred the starter's displeasure and is now down for two weeks.

Bullman says that Holtman has it in for him. Holtman stoutly denies it and President Thomas H. Williams says he is satisfied Holtman is not prejudiced against the rider. According to Messrs. Williams and Holtman Bullman is possessed of an ungovernable temper and has a mania for getting off in front that militates against discipline at the barrier and delays starts unnecessarily.

Coburn is also under the ban just now, although his case is different from Bullman's. Instead of trying to "beat the gate" Coburn has displayed considerable lethargy in starting. He has been practically left at the post a few times when piloting favorites, and the judges made up their mind to suspend him indefinitely.

John W. Gates was a visitor at the New Orleans track last Friday afternoon, and viewed several of the races from the stewards' stand. He was greatly impressed with the many improvements that have been made since he was there last, but was surprised to find the going so bad. Mr. Gates has been on a shooting trip in Mississippi, and will return here in a day or two. In his party was Robert Welch, a son of Aristides Welch, a famous breeder of twenty years ago.

The horses comprising the main racing "string" of T. H. Stevens in 1903 have been shipped from Walnut Hall Stud, Lexington, Ky., to Little Rock, Ark., in charge of their owner, who will winter and train there the coming spring. There were fifteen horses in the string, the four-year-old bay colt, Picador, by Wadsworth—Miss Rica, by Buckra, and three two-year-olds:

Barca, b. c, by Wadsworth—Esplanade, by Buckra. Treacy, ch. c, by Wadsworth—Fonsie, by King Alfonso.

Indian Child, br. f, by Locohatchee—Austriana, by Alarm.

The other eleven head were all yearlings (coming two-year-olds) and were as follows:

Bay colt, by Fonso—Florimore, by Longfellow.

Chestnut colt, by Governor Foraker—Susie Forbes, by Rebel.

Bay colt, by Wadsworth—April's Lady, by Linden.

Bay colt, by Wadsworth—Banricka, by Ban Yan.

Bay colt, by Governor Foraker—Parissa, by Paris.

Chestnut filly (sister to Wyeth), by Wadsworth—Fonsie, by King Alfonso.

Black filly, by Governor Foraker—Dublin Belle, by St. Florian.

Bay filly, by St. Florian—Wary, by Warwick.

Bay filly, by Governor Foraker—Esplanade, by Buckra.

Bay filly, by Governor Foraker—Emily S., by Onondaga.

Chestnut filly, by Wadsworth—Fancy Free, by Fonso.

Stevens will do his first racing in the coming year at Little Rock and Memphis, and then come up the line, reaching the east probably during the Saratoga meeting. He regards his coming two-year-olds as a collection, the highest tried of any youngsters he ever raised. They are extensively engaged in future events.

There will be a new departure in the sale of thoroughbred stock in this country on Thursday next, when the imported yearling fillies and broodmares bred at the Childwick Stud, St. Albans, England, will be offered at the American Horse Exchange. The lot is consigned by Sir J. Blundell Maple, M.P., one of the leaders of the English turf, and whose racing and breeding operations are conducted on a tremendous scale.

Hitherto the annual sale of the Childwick thoroughbred stock has taken place in France, but the sporting baronet has decided to make America his market in future.

All the broodmares in the consignment to be auctioned by W. D. Grand are surely in foal, while the yearling fillies embrace some of the most choice strains in the English stud book. The sires represented in the lot are Common, by Isonomy, the winner of the 2,000 Guineas and Derby in 1901; Childwick, by St. Simon; and

The following are the broodmares that will be offered: Dorimene, by Bend Or—Link Girl; Spanish Match, by Royal Hampton—Allamense; Marcella II., by Melton—Andriana; Vespers, by St. Simon—La Cloche; Aretusa, by Melton—Arcadia, and Goblet, by Grey Leg—Kissing Cup.

"Preliminary trials at Memphis, Tenn. of yearling thoroughbreds, which will celebrate their second birthday on January 1, show several owners in winter quarters at Montgomery Park possessed of good juvenile racers destined to earn purses or stakes for 1903," says a Cincinnati exchange. "Trainers for two months have been busy weeding out the promising material from these that gave no evidence of speed, and C. R. Ellison is the first to give away an aristocratic relative of a prominent turf family. Ellison has more than a dozen yearlings, a majority of which have worked quarters better than 24 seconds. Trainer Mayberry gave away the bay colt by Belvidere—Lady Hawkstone. Ellison bought this colt on the strength of his being a full brother to Joe Frey, winner of a California Derby. Ellison's youngster was given to Mickey Shannon."

"John M., a chestnut colt, by Albert—Annabel, has worked well, but Ellison owns his fastest youngster in the son of Kingston—Wantage, which is yet unnamed."

"J. W. Schorr owns twenty-two yearlings, most of them being sired by the dead Esher. They have received workouts from George Walker, who developed Lady Schorr, Alard Scheck, Endurance by River, F. W. Brode and other Schorr winners. Walker regards his best youngster thus far as the yearling brother to Judith Campbell. This fellow is by Esher, and is as large now as his famous sister, which led the list of Schorr winners in the east until sold to John E. Madden. There is also an unnamed colt by Handsome that worked a quarter better than 24 seconds. Schorr yearlings have been asked to pack high weight in all of their trials, and while the time in many instances has been slow Walker is holding on to all colts and fillies."

"G. C. Bennett will have the largest number of two-year-olds racing in his colors in 1903. In addition to some of his own breeding Bennett owns the yearling brother to Fly Wheel, by Falsetto—Fright, that has done fast work. Bennett also owns a relative to Savable, the Futurity winner, in the yearling son of King's Counsel—Miss Francis, Strathmeath, Savable's dam, being the dam of Miss Francis. Intrusive, the seven-year-old Meddler horse, recently arrived at the Bennett farm and will be bred to Jane, Charm and other former race mares stationed here."

Though in perfect stud health at Lexington, Ky., the famous sire, Deceiver, owned by the father of jockey Lucien Lyne, has all his food chopped up for him, even the hay he eats. The horse that has given the turf a John Cooper, a Decanter, a Ceverton and a Puryear D., to say nothing of scores upon scores of winners, is coming twenty-three years old, and save the difficulty he has in masticating his food, he is as hale and hearty as he was ten years ago. Deceiver is now more famous than ever, owing to the fact that he is the first thoroughbred horse Lucien Lyne ever threw his leg over. Lyne rode the noted stallion around the paddocks of Larchmont Stud when the now great rider was in dresses and he and Deceiver have always been stanch friends. Lyne has about abandoned his proposed trip to New Orleans. His salary with the Keenes begins January 1 and on that day he draws one-third of his salary, a trifle over $5,666. His trip to New Orleans might result in an attack of sickness, which, if serious, would affect his contract with the Wall street magnate, so it is likely he will not be seen again in the saddle in this country until he returns from abroad. He has made arrangements to sail for England on February 1 and will be in company with J. O. Keene, another Kentuckian, under engagement to train the coming season for General M. E. Lazereff, a Russian millionaire.

STAKES ANNOUNCED.

The stakes for the spring meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club have been announced by Secretary Price. They are ten in number, including a new stake for the jumpers. This will be the first time in ten years that a steeplechase has been given at Churchill Downs. No purse will be given less than $400, with handicaps in proportion. The meeting begins on Derby day, May 2, and continues for fifteen racing days. The stakes close on January 15 and are as follows:

The Kentucky Derby for 1904, for three-year-olds, value $5,000. One mile and a quarter.

The Kentucky Oaks for 1904, for three-year-old fillies, value $3,000. One mile and a sixteenth.

The Louisville Nursery for 1904, for two-year-olds, value $5,000. Four and a half furlongs.

The Debutante Stakes for 1903, for two-year-old fillies, $1,000 added. Four furlongs.

The Bashford Manor Stakes for 1903, for two-year-old colts and geldings, $1,000 added. Four and a half furlongs.

The Juvenile Stakes for 1903, for three-year-olds, $1,000 added. Five furlongs.

The Clark Handicap for 1903, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,500 added. One mile and a sixteenth.

The Frank Fehr Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added. One mile.

The Blue Grass Stakes for 1903, for three-year-olds, $1,000 added. Six and a half furlongs.

The Louisville Steeplechase for 1903, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added. About two miles.

In addition to the spring stakes above the Kentucky Derby ($5,000), the Kentucky Oaks, ($4,000), and the Nursery Stakes, ($3,000), now closed, will also be run at the 1903 meeting.

Secretary J. W. Russwurm, of the New Tennessee Breeders' Association, announces that the Cumberland Derby, for three-year-olds, to be run at Cumberland Park next spring, will have $3,000 added, making it worth about $4,500 to the winner.

A new race, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Handicap, will be inaugurated, and will hereafter be a fixture of the Cumberland Park meetings. It will have $1,500 added. The distance will be one mile.

The Carter Memorial will be run, of course, and in addition to it will be two stakes for two-year-olds. Each of the two latter will have $1,000 added. One will be for both colts and fillies and the other for fillies exclusively. These five will comprise the stake events, and the entries will close on January 17. The dates for the meeting are April 23 to May 2 inclusive.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The two-year-old Ed Layson, a stake winner at St. Louis last season, died at the New Orleans Fair Grounds last Friday. He took cold after a workout about a week ago, which developed into lung fever. He was trained by W. W. Benson.

Julius Bauer will within a day or two leave New York for Lexington to take in hand twenty horses owned by Alfred Featherstone. Reina, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, will not be trained again.

Jockey Rigby has just returned from France from a successful season, and is enjoying the fruits of his labor. He will return to France next season and ride for M. Ephrussi at a salary of $15,000.

H. D. McIntyre, secretary of the Brooklyn Jockey Club and racing secretary of the Saratoga Association, who has been seriously ill from overwork, is reported as being much better.

L. V. Bell has declined very flattering offers for the services of jockeys Rice and Gannon in France next year.

T. K., Chicago. It is one and the same horse and the name is correct as we print it.

Thomas, Cincinnati. Claude has won three races this year.

Winning System

Form and information here is a joke unless a horse retains a position on the outside. During this present track condition any dog with speed can win from high class horses if he has the path and these kind are winning daily at false long odds. Let us post you right on each day's two best horses of speed which have the path.

TERMS

$2 DAILY, $10 WEEKLY

We also have this week an extra additional three special wires for $5, containing other information. We will wire before 2 p.m.

SPECIAL OFFER.

For the benefit of those whom telegrams cannot reach in time to take advantage of our new system, we will accept commissions of $23 upwards and place $3 on each day's special, wiring you the name of special horses and odds received before each race, and mail you the net profits at the end of each week, deducting 25 per cent of winnings for our services. We advise you to send money by telegraph at once as this opportunity will not last long.

Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot—Apozea (trained by W. Whalen).
Went to post at 2:02. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Meran cut across the track when the barrier went up and Donegan kept him on the path and hustled him along all the way. He was doing his best at the end to stall off Major Tenny. The latter finished strongly and was wearing the winner down in the last furlong. Oronte began slowly, but caught Sleepy Head tiring while rounding the far turn, then tired when it came to a drive. Sleepy Head was off well and had the path, but quit after going a half. Fading Light ran poorly. Uranium and John Carney began slowly and were soon hopelessly out of it.
Overweights—Shot Proof, 3 pounds; Sleepy Head, 2; Piquancy, 14.

Winner—Br. c. by Prince of Monaco—Sara (trained by W. N. Adams).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Shandonfield had the outside position at the post and Hoar kept him on the path all the way. He showed a lot of speed and raced Optimo to defeat while rounding the first turn and came away alone in the stretch run. Optimo was bumped into at the start and had to go to the inside on the backstretch to get to the leaders and fully ran his race. Atheola was hustled along all the way. Worthington stumbled after rounding the turn into the backstretch and Fuller gave him an easy ride after that. Shandonfield ran away two and one-quarter miles after the finish.

Winner—Br. c. by The Commoner—Catalpa (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gannon took The Caxton over to the outside in the first furlong and went through his field without much effort when he found the path. He was under punishment all of the last furlong and outgamed Tom Kingsley when it came to a drive. The latter was in the lumpy going all the way, made up a lot of ground when rounding the far turn, but tired in the stretch run. Lord Neville showed a lot of early speed, but tired after going a half. Vesuvia did well.
Scratched—36624 Lemoyne, 96.

Went to post at 3:22. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. John Peters outclassed his company in the going, was on the path all the way and Gannon was easing him up all through the last furlong. Otis took W. J. Harry Wilson began slowly and Gannon waited until he found an opening on the outside and shot his mount through on the path, shook off his field while rounding the far turn and had something in reserve at the end. Doeskin had no mishaps and was under a drive all of the last furlong. McCafferty could not do Alpaca justice. Russellton was off well in motion, but dropped out of it after going a quarter.

A large proportion of the horses now running at San Francisco took part in the sixty days racing at Butte, Mont. last summer. Knowledge of their performances there is of great value to students of form who are following the course of racing at 'Frisco. DAILY RACING FORM has prepared a table of the Butte racing in compact style which is for sale at 10 cents. It will be mailed to all who may apply on receipt of the sum named.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The yearling black filly by Lissak-Kildeer (dam of Goldsmith), by Darebin, and the yearling bay colt by Longflight-Mannie Himyar (dam of Blackstock, by Himyar, owned by W. C. Whitney, are dead at the Aiken, N. C., breeding establishment of the New York millionaire turfman. They died of distemper, which disease has taken off quite a number of youngsters in that section during the fall. These were among the most promising of the coming two-year-olds at the place.

Hanlight, a broodmare, the property of "Rome" Respass, was found dead last Saturday at the farm at Woodlawn, Ohio. Hanlight was by Hanover-Longalight, and was heavy in foal to Maceo. She was a very valuable broodmare and, coupled with the loss of the foal, makes it a pretty heavy blow for Respass. The barn destroyed by fire at Woodlawn has been replaced by a fine frame structure.

Sam Hildreth, who got into trouble with the Jockey Club several years ago, denies that he has been reinstated by the Jockey Club. In speaking of the matter Hildreth said: "I have received no letter from W. S. Vosburg of the Jockey Club telling of my reinstatement, as has been reported from Memphis. I have heard nothing on the subject and I do not expect to hear anything. I was only suspended by the Jockey Club for that fall and I suppose I could have gone back east long before now."

James Rowe, at a private sanitarium in East Thirty-Third street, New York, near Madison avenue, received a good many friends last Saturday. Jockey D. Maher, Ted Foley and Jim Villepue, just up from Sheepshead Bay, formed one party. Later Fred Hanlon dropped in, and W. Lakeland with his son. The well-known trainer is doing as well as can be expected and his physicians hope to have him all right in due time.

The racing firm of Farris & Lyne, Lexington, Ky., has dissolved, and W. C. Lyne has formed a partnership with Will Jones for the purpose of training and racing a stable of thoroughbreds the coming season. They have bought the half interest of Mr. Farris in the following two-year-olds, that will be raced in their colors next season:

Hook se Oka (sister to Judge Redwine), br. f, by Scorpion-Ten Ban, by Ten Broeck.

Nath Woodcock, ch. g, by Frank Eisman-Cora Taylor, by London.

Trixie Dimling, ch. f, by The Minstrel-Minnie May, dam of the good race mare, Kitty B.

W. C. Daly has been commissioned to teach the American style to lads from foreign lands. Daly has a Hungarian lad named Dionysius Palfy now under his tutelage, who was sent here by his father, a lawyer in Hungary, to acquire the American habit of riding winners. Palfy has picked up a good deal since his arrival in this country, and is promised a good engagement to ride in his own country when he returns there next fall, and will be able to do about 100 pounds.

Jockey J. H. (Skeets) Martin is seriously ill at the Hotel Cadillac, New York city. He contracted a severe cold a few days ago, which, according to his physicians, has developed into grip. Martin had some teeth extracted early last week and a cold resulted. This early settled into throat trouble and bronchitis, and the jockey has been confined to his room for the past four days. Martin's condition late Sunday night was regarded as quite serious. He could not be seen, but his wife stated that he was seriously ill and his condition was not improved.

The project to mount the bones of the famous thoroughbred sire Hanover has brought to light the fact that the horse was dismembered by relic hunters when he was put to death. The famous stallion broke a leg, and it was first thought he might be saved. When he was finally put to death admirers of the great horse secured his hoofs and one of his legs was taken by the veterinarian. Should his bones be mounted and placed in a museum it will be necessary to supply the missing parts from some other animal.

Belmont Park, the new metropolitan track that is to take the place of Morris Park, is not to be controlled by a stock company, as are most of the others in The Jockey Club domains. It will be built with the money of three royal good friends of racing, August Belmont, W. C. Whitney and W. K. Vanderbilt. It is further said that the appointments will eclipse anything in this country or anywhere that racing is carried on.

The administrator of the estate of "War Jig" James Murphy has written to Philip J. Dwyer to ascertain the whereabouts of the horse Fred Ackerman, which Murphy raced with fair success on the metropolitan tracks last season. Murphy's death came suddenly, and it is not known just what disposition he had made of the horse.

Returning Americans say that H. E. Leigh has conferred a great public benefit upon many English trainers of race horses by establishing at his home, Findon, a factory for the production of racing plates, which find a ready and large sale.
